MUSIC AT THE BASILICA

Lent III

From the very beginnings of the study of music history and musicology, Josquin has been considered the leading Renaissance composer of the 15th century. He spent most of his musical life in Italy; for fifteen years in the Milan Cathedral, then in the private chapel of Maria Sforza, and then a member of the Sistine choir from 1486-1499, after which he went to Milan and Ferrara. The exquisite piece we hear today at Communion is the second part of a larger motet (Magnus es tu Domine). The anonymous Latin devotional text is particularly beautiful, and the music gives it full effect. Here it is in Latin and English:

*Tu pauperum refugium, tu languorum remedium, spes exsulum, fortitudo laborantium,
via errantium, veritas et vita.*

*Et nunc Redemptor, Domine, ad te solum confugio;
te verum Deum adoro, in te spero,
in te confido, salus mea, Jesu Christe.*

Adjuva me, ne unquam obdormiat in morte anima mea.

Thou art the refuge of the poor, remedy for afflictions,
hope of exiles, strength of those who labor,
way for the wandering, truth and life.

And now, Redeemer, Lord, in thee alone I take refuge;
thee, true God, I adore, in thee I hope,
in thee I confide, my salvation, O Jesus Christ.

Help me, lest my soul ever sleep in death.

This would be an ideal motet for this year of mercy too. Josquin's one hundred motets convey the emotional and intellectual meanings of the texts, though not overtly, as we hear in the late Renaissance and early Baroque periods. Note the change to triple time as the words turn to Jesus directly, culminating in the rejoining of the upper voices and lower voices at the end. It is a piece that inspires awe and mystery, like the burning bush; it exemplifies the relationship between God and man, creator and creature.

At Offertory, we hear a piece by the Venetian Baroque composer and magistrate Benedetto Marcello, whose brother, Alessandro Marcello, was also a well-known composer. A contemporary of Vivaldi, Marcello is best remembered for his Estro poetico-armonico, a musical setting of the first 50 Psalms for voices, continuo, and occasional solo instruments.

Basilica Schola

The Basilica Schola is in session for the 2015-2016 season. We already have welcomed new members, but hope you will join us too! We schedule informal "auditions" during the year for anyone interested in joining. It is a great way to enhance your spiritual life, meet fellow parishioners, and deepen your understanding of the tradition. Contact Joshua, our Cantor:

cantor@oldcathedral.org to learn more. Hear our latest recording, available on iTunes, and find out more about the music ministry at

ERBEN RENEWAL:

Restore Our Pipe Organ!

We are in great need of financial support to restore and protect the Erben. Donations to the organ fund can be made to St. Patrick's Old Cathedral, with the memo "Erben Organ Restoration Fund." Join the "Erben Renewal" Facebook page to find out about music at the Basilica, and the world-class 2,500 pipe Henry Erben organ, one of the great pipe organs of America:

WEEKDAY MASS at 7:00 PM

During the 90 Days of Grace (Lent and Eastertide) there will be a 7:00 PM Mass (Eng) from Monday to Friday at the Church of the Most Precious Blood located at 103 Baxter Street, near Canal Street. In addition there are weekday Masses at the Basilica at 8:00 AM (Sp) and at 12:10 PM (Eng). Keep in mind that the Church of the Most Precious Blood has Holy Doors by which those who enter gain a plenary indulgence every day.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Fridays from 6:00 PM to 6:30 PM

The Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood

For centuries Catholics have participated in the Passion of Christ by recalling particular episodes (Stations) from His journey to the Cross. We invite you to join us every Friday during Lent as we draw closer to Christ and share in his journey to Calvary.

HOLY DOORS OF MERCY

The Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral is honored, with the blessing of Cardinal Dolan, to have HOLY DOORS at its sister church, the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood for the duration of the Holy Year. With these Holy Doors open 24hrs a day, pilgrims passing through them will benefit from indulgences and blessings. Pilgrims will reflect on the major theme of the Holy Year – the universal reach of God's mercy – by viewing a display of presepio, crafted in this city of Naples by La Scarabattola.

For those in a state of grace and fulfilling the other prescribed conditions, a plenary indulgence may be gained once day by passing through the Holy Doors. A plenary indulgence removes all punishment due to sin.

Those seeking the indulgence are encouraged to begin a pilgrimage starting at the Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral where a Prayer of Mercy may be said. The pilgrim then may proceed down to the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood where the Holy Doors of Mercy are located.

BAPTISM PREPARATION

If you are expecting a new baby or if she/he is already here, be sure to let us know. Then go to our website and acquaint yourself with what to do next to be prepared for the renewal of your own baptismal vows and the baptism of your child. Baptism are not schedule during Lent. The next time for baptism is at the Easter Vigil, March 26.

Next Session for parents and godparents is Monday, March 7 at 7:00pm.

The Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from eating meat .

WELCOME, BISHOP JOHN J. O'HARA

Bishop O'Hara is an auxiliary bishop in the Archdiocese of New York and the Episcopal Vicar of the South Manhattan deanery. He will be the celebrant at our Easter Vigil Mass on March 25 and will confirm our young candidates for confirmation on Mass of Confirmation on May 1. He is also very interested in the restoration of our Erben organ.

the CARDINAL'S
ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP APPEAL
Sharing God's Gifts

During this Jubilee Year we are called to help one another and be merciful as Jesus is for all our sins. It is only with your help that the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal continues to be a beacon of hope for our brothers and sisters through ministries and charities.

Every year the Archdiocese sets a goal for each parish. This year the goal for the merged parish of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral and the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood is $47,000. Please pray over this and make a gift that will assist those in need around us. You can learn more about the Appeal at www.cardinalsappeal.org

FR. ENRIQUE SALVO

Fr. Salvo, Director of the Office of Vocations in the Archdiocese will join our parish community as a resident at 263 Mulberry. He is eager to assist in the pastoral ministry here as he maintains his fulltime dedication to foster vocations to the priesthood.

Father Salvo was ordained in 2010 after obtaining his education at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers.

Born in Nicaragua, he came to The United States in 2004 and settled in our neighborhood. He often attended daily Mass at St. Patrick's Old Cathedral. Little did he know then, that he would be back serving as a priest. He will join us on March 1.

MEN'S LENTEN RETREAT

Led by Fr. Peter M.J. Stravinskias, the theme of the retreat is "Understanding Masculine Holiness and Integrity". He will take retreatants through a spiritual journey to better understanding of themselves as Catholic men. With food, beverages, confession, Mass, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

BULLETIN NEWS - FEBRUARY 27-28, 2016

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD SENIOR CLUB: Our next senior luncheon will take place on March 15, 2016. As always, the location is the rectory dining room at MPB Church and the time is 1:00 PM. Please make a note of it and remind your friends/neighbors.

SPECIAL EVENTS: In April, we are going to sponsor an Alzheimer's Awareness Day for seniors and anyone who is concerned about this growing threat to our loved ones and ourselves. This idea came from our Project Manager, Bill Russo, who became very involved with the Alzheimer's Association when his mother, Anna, was stricken with the disease. One of the ways he has continued the fight to help find a cure is by creating a website in his mother's honor. You can donate by visiting WWW.ALZNYC.ORG/ANNA. Our Alzheimer's Awareness Day event will be held in Most Precious Blood Church on April 19th. Pertinent information will follow once we have the details finalized. This is an important event, and we ask you to please spread the word. The number of cases of Alzheimer's disease is on the rise; we don't believe there is anyone out there who has not been touched by it in one way or another. Many people don't know where to turn when this disease hits; attendance at this event will arm you with important information. Undoubtedly (and unfortunately), you will be called upon to use this information in the future for someone. If & when that time comes, you will be glad that you can help with what you've learned. Please mark your calendars: April 19th -- Alzheimer's Awareness Day at Most Precious Blood Church. Details to follow.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS: Every Friday at 12:10 PM up to and including Good Friday which falls on March 25th.

SAINT ANTHONY NOVENA: This year, our annual Saint Anthony Novena begins on March 15th and ends on June 7th. The novena takes place on 13 consecutive Tuesdays; however, you only need to attend 9 weeks to fulfill your commitment. We hope St. Anthony hears and answers your prayers.
