MUSIC AT THE BASILICA

Music for Pentecost

Pentecost marks the culmination of the “Week of Weeks” that is the Easter Season. Whitsunday is an older term for Pentecost, derived from the white robes worn by baptismal candidates. Baptisms, often held outside in rivers, were frequently postponed from the Easter Vigil to Pentecost due to the chilling weather of cold northern European climates. Today’s Sequence, called the “Golden Sequence,” is traditionally sung at Pentecost; it begins: Veni, Sancte Spiritus/Et emitte coelitus/Lucis tuae radium (Come Holy Spirit, send forth the heavenly radiance of your light). Follow along in along in your hymnals; the English translation is given there as well.

For Pentecost, we will sing a choral Kyrie and Agnus Dei by Rodrigo de Ceballos (c. 1525-1572) from the colonial music archive in Guatemala City. He was born in Aracena (Huelva), and was ordained a priest in Seville in 1556. He was named maestro di capella in Malaga in 1554, in the cathedral of Córdoba in 1556, and in the Royal Chapel of Granada in 1561. He is a composer of the Andalusian school, alongside better-known composers such as Francisco Guerrero (who, with Pedro Fernández de Castilleja, gave him his holy orders) and Cristobal de Morales. His works are preserved in various Spanish and Latin American cathedrals.

Gregor Aichinger (1564-1628) was a Catholic priest and organist to the powerful merchant-banker Fugger family in Augsburg. His Factus Est Repente is one of the most popular motets of all time for both Pentecost and Confirmations. Published in 1606, the traditional elements of plainchant and fugue are made to be fully expressive of the spirit and meaning of the text. The opening gives the impression of suddenness, the descent in pitch indicating the descent of wind from heaven. Later, he employs a double canon, one a psalm tone in augmentation, another a descant. There are percussive repeated notes and homophonic sections reminiscent of the Venetians, and no surprise there, since he also was one of the first German composers to use a basso continuo.

Basilica Schola

The Basilica Schola is in session for the 2015-2016 season. We already have welcomed new members, but hope you will join us too! We schedule informal "auditions" during the year for anyone interested in joining. It is a great way to enhance your spiritual life, meet fellow parishioners, and deepen your understanding of the tradition. Contact Joshua, our Cantor: cantor@oldcathedral.org to learn more. Hear our latest recording, available on iTunes, and find out more about the music ministry at <http://oldcathedral.org/music-at-the-basilica>.

ERBEN RENEWAL:

Restore Our Pipe Organ!

We are in great need of financial support to restore and protect the Erben. Donations to the organ fund can be made to St. Patrick's Old Cathedral, with the memo “Erben Organ Restoration Fund.” Join the “Erben Renewal” Facebook page to find out about music at the Basilica, and the world-class 2,500 pipe Henry Erben organ, one of the great pipe organs of America:

Holy Doors of Mercy

The Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral is honored, with the blessing of Cardinal Dolan, to have HOLY DOORS at its sister church, the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood for the duration of the Holy Year. With these Holy Doors open 24hrs a day, pilgrims passing through them will benefit from indulgences and blessings. Pilgrims will reflect on the major theme of the Holy Year – the universal reach of God's mercy – by viewing a display of presepio, crafted in this city of Naples by La Scarabattola.

For those in a state of grace and fulfilling the other prescribed conditions, a plenary indulgence may be gained once day by passing through the Holy Doors. A plenary indulgence removes all punishment due to sin.

Those seeking the indulgence are encouraged to begin a pilgrimage starting at the Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral where a Prayer of Mercy may be said. The pilgrim then may proceed down to the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood where the Holy Doors of Mercy are located.

Stained Glass Windows

With great joy, four refurbished windows will be installed this coming week in the sanctuary area, two windows on each side. Keep in mind, that the restoration of the windows is a monumental effort since that tracery sections of the windows (the woodwork that frames the stained glass) had to be hand hewn from hard wood. This had to be replaced because the old frames and tracery were so deteriorated that they no longer could safely hold the glass in place. The remaining stained glass windows will be completed over the spring and summer.

The stained glass that you now see is the same glass that was there before the restoration. The glass looks new because each piece was cleaned and in some cases replaced where there were breaks or pieces missing.

Weekday Masses

As a result of the work being done inside and outside the Basilica during the installation of the four stained glass windows, the church will be closed from Monday to Friday for the next two weeks. The weekday Masses - 8:00AM & 12:10PM - will be celebrated in St. Michael's Russian Catholic Church at 266 Mulberry Street.

BAPTISM PREPARATION

If you are expecting a new baby or if she/he is already here, be sure to let us know. Then go to our website and acquaint yourself with what to do next to be prepared for the renewal of your own baptismal vows and the baptism of your child.

Next Session for parents and godparents is:
Monday, June 6th at 7:00pm.

CARDINAL'S
ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP APPEAL
Sharing God's Gifts

During this year of Mercy, it is more important than ever to be actively aware of the needs of our brothers and sisters in need. The Cardinal's Appeal addresses a wide range of human needs in neighborhoods of the Archdiocese. Many people and whole families are in crisis due to changes in economy as well as challenges that come to them through illness or accidents. In addition, the Cardinal's Appeal assist in the education of youngsters and the care for older people who have become frail, including nuns and priests.

Please be generous in response to the Cardinal's Appeal. Every year the Archdiocese sets a goal for each parish. This year the goal for the merged parish of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral and the Shrine Church of the Most Precious Blood is $47,000. Please pray over this and make a gift that will assist those in need around us. You can learn more about the Appeal at www.cardinalsappeal.org

BULLETIN NEWS – MAY 14-15, 2016

EASTER 90-DAYS OF GRACE PERIOD ended

Tuesday, May 10th. This also means it is the end of our 7:00 pm Masses. This was an experiment of sorts -- had this Mass been well-attended it would have continued into the future and, hopefully, we would have found priests who were able to celebrate it. However, attendance has been much less than expected. Therefore, due to low attendance coupled with a shortage of available priests, Monsignor Sakano decided to cancel this evening Mass going forward.

SAINT ANTHONY NOVENA: Tuesday, May 17th is week 10 of our 13-week Novena Mass in honor of Saint Anthony of Padua. Thankfully, attendance at this Mass has been extremely good. We average between 35 to 45 people each week. The novena will end on Tuesday, June 7th. For the duration of this time period, we will continue to offer light refreshments – coffee, cookies, etc. – immediately after the 12:10 PM Mass. Many thanks to Anna Caroselli and Lina Faele for their donation of cookies and donuts, respectively, this past week.

SAINT ANTHONY'S FEAST DAY: Monday, June 13th is Saint Anthony's feast day. There WILL be a mass at 12:10 PM. After this, we go back to our original schedule of Masses: the Saturday 5:30 PM Vigil Mass and the Sunday 2:00 PM Vietnamese Mass. There will be occasional Sunday Masses throughout the year to accommodate all the societies currently associated with MPB Church and, of course, those Masses will always be announced beforehand in this Bulletin and via notices posted in and around the church and rectory.

SAINT ANTHONY SOCIETY OF GIOVINAZZO IN NEW YORK: The Saint Anthony of Giovinazzo will hold its annual Mass on Saturday, June 11th. Their Mass will be incorporated into our regular Saturday 5:30 PM Vigil Mass. Anyone who has a Mass intention for that day can rest assured that your intentions will be honored as scheduled. Mass will be celebrated by our former pastor, Father Fabian Grifone, O.F.M.

Unfortunately, due to a number of different factors, the Saint Anthony Society decided last year to cancel its annual feast. However, there WILL BE A RELIGIOUS PROCESSION immediately following the 5:30 PM Mass on June 11th. Their Saint Anthony statue will be carried through the streets of Little Italy as is done every year. The fabulous and much-loved RED MIKE FESTIVAL BAND led by Louise Acompora will provide the music as they've done since this society's feast began.

Saint Anthony is one of the most beloved saints and is known throughout the world. Everyone is welcome to join in the procession; whether you have a devotion to Saint Anthony or just want to be a part of this wonderful experience, feel free to follow along with everyone else. The Saint Anthony Society of Giovinazzo would love to have you join them in their annual celebration of and devotion to this saint of miracles.

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD SENIOR CLUB: Tuesday, May 17th, is our next MPB Senior Club luncheon. The luncheon takes place in the rectory dining room at 109 Mulberry Street and starts approximately 1:00 PM.
