BULLETIN NEWS – NOVEMBER 12-13, 2016

Music & Voices' Concert Series Premiere

On November 22, 2016 at 7 PM a concert, 'Music & Voices' will be held in the nave of the Most Precious Blood Church in honor of Saint Cecilia the patron saint of musicians. This premiere concert is open to the public. For further information contact Bill Russo, Project Manager at 212-226-6427.

Spotlight on the Statue of St. Elizabeth of Hungary

Thursday, November 17th is the feast day of Saint Elizabeth of Hungary. The Shrine Church of Most Precious Blood has a magnificent statue of her. She was born the daughter of the King of Hungary and could easily have lived a life of leisure and luxury. Instead she chose to live a life of a common person: a choice she made based on her great love for the poor and suffering. Married at age 14 and bore three children. She lived a life of prayer, sacrifice and service to the poor. In 1228 Elizabeth joined the secular Franciscan order and spent the last few years of her life caring for the poor in a hospital she founded in honor of St. Francis. She died before her 24th birthday in 1231 and was canonized only four years later due to her great popularity. She is the patron saint of Catholic charities, secular Franciscan orders and bakers. Come see the statue in the nave for moments of prayer and reflection.

Senior Citizens Club Yoga Classes:

Trinh Korkkoris Director of the Vietnamese Learning Arts and Cultural Center held the first yoga class for seniors last week on November 9, 2016. Going forward Yoga classes for seniors will be held on Wednesdays after the 12:10 PM mass except the first Wednesday of the month. For information contact Office Manager Emily De Palo at 212-226-6427.

Experience the Nativity of Mercy

What do acts of mercy look like? Experience the visual display 'Nativity of Mercy' at the Shrine Church of Most Precious Blood. This folk art is comprised of over 50 figurines and scenery that incorporates images of mercy from the Renaissance painting of Caravaggio entitled 'Seven Acts of Mercy' and from the painting by Rembrandt, 'The Return of the Prodigal Son.' It is a masterpiece.

Be merciful like the father.
