ADVENT/CHRISTMAS SEASON: Sunday, December 3rd, marks the beginning of Advent and the Christmas season. To usher in this joyous season, there will be two musical events at the Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral. For anyone who didn't see the flyer in last week's Bulletin: On Thursday, December 7 at 7:00PM, there will be a concert by Highbridge Voices, a children's choral program co-founded by Msgr. Sakano. The children will perform a medley of music traditionally associated with the Advent season. After the concert, at 8:00PM, there will be a reception in the Youth Center.

Sunday, December 10 at 5:30PM, there will be another concert by The Basilica Schola (adult choir), Basilica Voices (children's choir) and the St. Joseph's Handbell Choir. This concert will be followed by Mass at 7:00PM, and a reception at 8:00PM in the Parish House (263 Mulberry Street). These FREE events are open to all!

SAVING BUONGIORNO PROJECT: We are in the process of preserving the magnificent artwork which graces the walls and ceiling of our beautiful church. As we mentioned in previous weeks, the painting closest to the Lady of Lourdes Shrine is being worked on currently – it is being repaired and will then be cleaned, as will all the other works of art. This is an expensive undertaking. We are asking everyone who is interested in helping preserve the paintings of Donatus Buongiorno to contribute to the Saving Buongiorno Project; any amount you can offer to support this important project will be welcomed and appreciated. You can call the rectory office at 212-226-6427 with any questions, and you can send your donations there, as well. The rectory address is 109 Mulberry Street, New York, New York 10013.

MASS BOOK: The Mass Book for 2018 is open. For anyone wishing to NOT share their Mass intention, please know that we will try our best to accommodate your request, but know that it is not always possible to do so. We currently have only two Masses per week, not counting the special annual society Masses, San Gennaro week, St. Anthony novena, etc.); those dates and times will be announced as appropriate. Most likely, your Mass intention(s) will be shared with others. Please keep in mind that the most important element here are the prayers for your loved ones; sharing prayers with others is actually a beautiful thing to do, so please don't let that deter you from scheduling your Masses.
